Practice to Performance is a course that runs every two months focussing on...

Repertoire

From pieces to studies and exercises, and an agenda of repertoire for warmups to selecting a recital, exam or audition programme. Repertoire is our resource.

Technical

From facility, agility and reliability, via fingering dependability, clarity and speed of articulation, to breath sustainability and stamina. Ever extending technical prowess.

Musicianship

From essential theory to its practical integration within practice and performance; from interpretation to applying musical intention. Musicianship is the essence of a musician.

Guests

Renowned players, voices from academia, technical specialists and composers. Guests will encompass excellence and diversity.

Knowledge Nuggets

From companies introducing new products, books and resources to artists sharing an insight, a discovery, or new initiatives within education or fitness advice. Knowledge in nuggets!

Science and Creativity

From theories and concepts in performance science that give reason and understanding, to the appropriate integration of intuitive spontaneity. Science and creativity in partnership.

- Google Classroom resources available from the moment you book!
- World Premiere at every course
- A library of chamber music to play along with at home

WHAT PARTICIPANTS HAVE SAID

“Thank you very much for giving me motivation. My practice will never be the same again.”

“It was really very enjoyable and some great points made by you all. I would certainly like to take part again if possible...”

“That was such a great day...
Can't wait for the next one”

“Your session gave me totally new approach to my practice and it made me think about what I want to achieve in other areas, outside music too.”

“...it really was great to be involved with other musical activity other than just practice, so very much welcomed.”

“It was such an amazing and inspirational day”

Other useful information...

All participants are invited to send in recordings (ideally including video footage). The music is participants own choice and is a chance to share current work so don't worry about it being perfect, this will be a safe and supportive environment to share your work. We ask for 2 pieces (max) and a total time of no more than 5 mins.

Recordings should be best quality possible but understand there may be limitations with home recording. Should you require any guidance or support with this please do get in touch.

The whole course will take place on zoom and will not be recorded so don't miss out. You will be sent links before the day to access all the sessions.
