This album is a celebration of cultural diversity, musical innovation, and the expressive potential of the E flat clarinet. Join Jorge Montilla and duo partner Alan Huckleberry on a journey of discovery and artistic expression. Through the soul-stirring melodies, captivating styles, and vibrant rhythms of Latin American music, within a fusion of diverse cultural influences from over 20 countries.

This album promises to inspire, uplift, and transport you to the heart of Latin American musical heritage.

In tribute to this diverse and often undervalued member of the clarinet family, the Eb clarinet boasts a diverse range of tones, from warm and mellow to dynamic and expressive, this instrument shines across various musical genres while holding a significant place in wind band ensembles worldwide.

Renowned across continents, Jorge Montilla is celebrated for his exceptional talent as a clarinetist, educator, and composer. Paying homage this unique instrument, this album would be incomplete without including the esteemed Viennese clarinetist and composer Alfred Prinz whose testament as composer and unique musical style are projected in his Sonata.

Clarinet & Saxophone Classics is excited to release this second album from Jorge Montilla, world exponent of the E flat clarinet and a leading voice in the world of clarinet performance and education. Explore the rich tapestry of Latin American music and the versatility of the Eb clarinet in our latest discographic recording. Available on physical, digital and streaming platforms, a significant new addition to the catalogue.

REVIEWS

Praised by THE AMERICAN RECORD GUIDE for his "masterful performances. Montilla effortlessly infuses his native continental repertoire with nuanced technique, dance accents, and tasteful vibrato."

"'La Revoltosa' is a one of the Twelve albums by Latin clarinetists that you must listen to. From the first notes one is captivated with the music and Jorge's sweet timbre and musical solvency on the E flat clarinet."

CLARIPERU (the clarinet in Latino America)

"Montilla is a Top-Flight musician – he is a veteran of "El Sistema". He plays as if he has this music in his blood."
